

DNS Privacy Workshop

 This is the homepage of the DNS Privacy Workshop. The 2018 workshop will again be co-located with NDSS in San Diego, California in February 2018.

About

The first DNS Privacy workshop was co-located with NDSS in February 2017. The focus was on all aspects of the threats, the protocols, and future design spaces, of DNS privacy or the privacy of adjacent protocols. Topics presented included DNS in Tor, NSEC5, Usability Challenges, DNS Service Discovery Privacy and DNS Padding Schemes.

The title for this years conference is "Increasing Usability and Decreasing Traceability" and we particularly welcome submissions on usability, traceability, measurement and analytical evaluations.
